WS-1110 Keeping Pets Healthy Using Essential Oils

With Dottie Vaivoda, Thurs. 11/8/18, 1-3pm, Room 20 M$20 NM $23

Come learn about all the wonderful benefits of essential oils and how they can be used effectively to comfort your dogs, cats and horses. Our pets sometimes deal with day-to-day health issues just like us humans. Wouldn't it be nice to be able to reach for an all natural certified pure therapeutic grade essential oil to make them feel better? Essential oils are so effective and cost pennies compared to expensive vet bills. Essential oils are from plant's flowers, roots, stems and bark and contain hundreds of chemical constituents that are therapeutic to our animals. This class will be a fun learning environment combined with videos, lecture, hands-on experience with oils along with recommended uses for helping your pets with their health challenges. Free samples are always given and participants will be able to experience the powerful aromatic qualities of the oils. This class is designed for participants who are new to essential oils as well as for experienced essential oils users who want to learn more about how they can take care of their pets more naturally. Students may want to bring a pen and paper to take notes. Max 12

WS-1130 Intro to Clogging-Ages 16 & Up

With Gaylynn Brenoel, Fri. 11/30/18, 1-3pm, Room 30, M $20 NM $23

“Clogging is an expressive style of American dance with origins in the folk dances of the British Isles, Africa, and pre-Columbian America. Settlers in the American South took elements of these styles to form a unique American dance style, Appalachian clog dancing.” Beginning in the 1970s, clogging experienced a resurgence of interest. Today, clogging styles are varied and clogging can be done to all types of music. Come join us for a fun, interactive workshop and learn beginner steps and dances. Clogging shoes are NOT needed for this workshop. No flip flops or strapless-heel sandals, please. Max 14
